The ALEPPONE WS

A Golden Thought

* "Gray skies become sunny,

When old gold becomes Money."

So many Members have been into our offices to turn their old gold articles into IMMEDIATE cash, that we wish to extend this invitation to all of you.

No doubt you have many old gold articles of every description lying about your home that you'll never wear or use again. There are discarded and forgotten watch-cases, chains, rings, cuff-links, medals, pins, and emblems hidden in your attic, closets or bureau drawersthat you could easily convert into ready cash.

Your Golden Thought for Today:

Redeem your old gold — regardless if you need the money or not. It's good business to cash in on a high market.

Today's price of gold is higher than ever before. Take advantage of it!

The Gold Reclaiming Corporation is the largest organization of its kind in the United States. There must be a reason!

Editorial

YOUR Potentate, wishing to give the Nobles of Aleppo Temple the most active year they have ever had, has made plans for a free function every month this year for the Nobles, seven of which will include the ladies.

In order that the Nobles may be kept posted on these free functions, he has decreed that we shall have our own monthly magazine. This magazine will be mailed to the entire membership each month without charge. It will contain much of interest including the activities of Aleppo Temple as well as those of Shrinedom throughout North America. Therefore, the frequent and expensive mailings of individual events which have been sent out in the past, will be eliminated. We urge you to keep each copy where it can be referred to, as a reminder of coming ceremonials and other Temple functions.

We will strive to make this magazine, one that every Noble will be proud of, a publication he will not only read himself, but one he will show to his many friends. Every active unit is represented on the staff of this new magazine and we are desirous of having the cooperation of every Noble in furnishing us with the news items and editorial contributions so necessary to its success.

Realizing that every Shriner is a Mason and is interested in Masonic activities, we will devote as much space as possible each month to our Mother Fraternity.

We are not unmindful of the responsibility that administering a magazine of this nature brings with it. The work entrusted to us of presenting the activities of Aleppo Temple and Shrinedom which we want you to know of, is a task we are eager to undertake. For it cannot be denied that presenting to the Nobility of one of the largest Fraternal organizations in North America, something in which we are all interested and love, is indeed an interesting and pleasant undertaking. We who are preparing these pages for your enjoyment, think of our task, as much an opportunity as a responsibility.

The Nobles and friends who are advertising in our monthly issues are assisting to make this publication possible. We vouch for them and they deserve your consideration.

Don't forget Nobles! This is your magazine. We are going to print the things in which we believe you will be interested. Write and tell us how you like it. Suggestions will be appreciated.

CLARENCE JAMES McKENZIE
Illustrious Potentate

My Noble Friends:

First let me freely express my sincere thanks to you for the great honor you have conferred upon me in this election as Potentate of Aleppo Temple, the highest gift that can come from your hands and hearts.

While there is a thrill in this I am quite aware of the responsibilities and the work that go with the position. I enter into the task, however, with zeal and zest, courage and confidence, because I know you will give your most loyal support with a splendid spirit.

I shall try at all times to be perfectly frank with you and shall not work behind closed doors and drawn shades, nor shall I personally seek the spotlight after this message. You are welcome to any and all information, that I may possess, about our Temple and your suggestions and advice I earnestly ask.

In regard to my policies; I believe in a one year term for Potentates and shall set the example. A Temple as big as Aleppo has such wonderful material waiting to be developed that one year terms will bring forth more new ideas and more rapid progress, because times are changing rapidly. You have a strong and intensively cooperative line behind me and now that a condition of harmony has been evolved generally in our Temple by my immediate predecessor, the new potentate can engage in constructive thought and work.

I have been shuffling the cards and present a new deal. Taking example from our great Shriner and President I may say that I do not know if everything will work out all right, but we are on our way.

Beginning with this issue you will receive monthly this free magazine, intended for you and your home.

A Message Irom The Potentate

Read it carefully because it will profit you besides containing the only official as well as unofficial announcements and orders that you will receive from your Temple.

I propose to have one large, free, worth while event or function each month, plus many other activities for Nobles and the families of Nobles. Watch for them, in this magazine. The intention is to spread out our money without exceeding normal expenditures. Read the article "Operating A Shrine", in this issue.

I want, whenever possible, the families of our members to become more closely associated and/or identified with our Temple, getting the benefit of making new and desirable friends, besides meeting the old friends.

These have been tough years and we need each other, with the mental support that comes from a friendly hand on our back. The load will be lightened, the mind will be brightened because of these contacts.

I appeal particularly to those who have demitted or been suspended, to rejoin us and get the benefit of our activities. Have the Recorder tell you how we will cooperate. It will please me more than anything else to have you come back into the fold and, while I do not hope to have our Temple grow bigger in these times, I am going to try to see that it does not grow any smaller.

This is a large fraternal organization and I want it to exemplify just that thing.

If during my coming year I shall have been able to make you happier, and I will strive to do so, if I have been able to restore or increase the true Shrine spirit of life, laughter and brotherhood, I shall have accomplished my mission, and justified your faith in me.

I have received so many offers to help and assist during my coming administration, and so many congratulations, from so many fine people, that I here wish to publicly acknowledge them, with my deepest appreciation.

Yours for a busy year,

CLARENCE JAMES MCKENZIE

AMBASSADORS

ALEPPO Temple covers such a broad area that it is impossible for the Illustrious Potentate to enjoy the privilege of all the personal contacts that he would wish. Therefore he has delegated to a number of the faithful, authority to act as his personal ambassador in their local communities. Upon these ambassadors the Potentate imposes the duty of maintaining the ambassadors the Potentate imposes the duty of maintaining the interest of Aleppo in their respective localities, making every effort to secure petitions for membership or affiliations and using every effort to have those returned to membership who have either demitted or been suspended. The Ambassadors will convey to the Potentate constructive suggestions for the welfare of the Order, notify the Recorder of the Temple of deaths or changes of address supply to Alexand Monthly Noves items of changes of address, supply to Aleppo Monthly News items of interest and personals from their locality, and stimulate interest among the Nobles of their area in the Meetings, social gatherings and Ceremonials of the Temple.

BOOSTERS COMMITTEE

SPECIAL emphasis is to be applied to true Aleppo hospitality. This Committee should be a part of the Potentate on all occasions, and should strive to exemplify what they think the Nobles will expect in the way of sociability and friendship. They should boost the activities among their friends in the Shrine and aid in getting new applications for membership as well as restorations and reinstatements. Every member of this Committee should be greeters at the Meetings, extending a friendly hand and a cheerful "Hello Nobles" to the members as they come into the Hall.

NEW BEDFORD SHRINE CLUB ENTERTAINS CRIPPLED CHILDREN

The Shrine Club of Southeastern Massachusetts entertained the Crippled Children of the section Sunday afternoon, December 23rd, 1934. This was the eighth annual Christmas Tree party conducted by the Club and as usual was a source of extreme pleasure to the youngsters.

A splendid entertainment was provided including several popular comic movies, followed by the sudden entrance of Santa Claus with a distribution of a large basket of fruit, candy and nuts and clothing and toys. Novelties of colorful and noisy assortment added gaily to the affair and of course there was the usual quantity of soda and ice cream.

Fifty children with their parents and playmates were guests with a similar number of Nobles serving efficiently as hosts. The Shrine Club has developed a splendid social service through this yearly Christmas party and the contacts are continued throughout the year wherever possible to aid these crippled children. Many have been examined at the Springfield Hospital and several have been patients.

Fast Motion

Two colored boys who had just stolen a sack of chickens were running down the road. "See here, Harry, what foh you figgah out all dese heah flies are a-follerin" us like day is?"

"Dem ain't flies, black boy, dem's buck shot."

How We Fill The "Inner Man"

By Noble Theodore O. Nicholson, Asso. Editor

One of the important duties that a Potentate elect has thrust upon him, is that of appointing a Chief Steward and assistants, whose aim it shall be to see that at each ceremonial an abundance of food to suit the varying tastes of our members is provided and to see that each and everyone is amply taken care of.

It has been the good fortune of the Shrine to have as our chief steward, Past Potentate, George A. Shackford, who is well qualified for the position with many years of experience, and holding, as he does, the position of Quartermaster of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co. of Boston.

A newcomer to the stewards staff is George's 1st assistant, Albert E. Yarlotte, Chief of the Dining car service of the Boston and Albany Railroad, and his experience is of great value in seeing that the needs of the "inner man" are well taken care of.

George Shackford has for his 2nd assistant, William Spottiswoode, known by everyone as "Billy" who besides being one of the Sinking Fund Commissioners of Boston, his life-work, is the John Gilbert Jr. Co. who have for over 100 years supplied the better things of life to a discriminating public.

Our readers will appreciate that the catering at our ceremonials is no small job. The attendance varies from 5000 to 7000, and sometimes more, and everything has to be supplied for their enjoyment.

The Seiler boys have done a heroic job each year in furnishing and servicing foods that are unsurpassed, and it might not be amiss at this time to give a partial list of what is required to make an enjoyable event.

Let us start out with 150 gallons of raw oysters, 10,000 frankforts, 3000 lbs. of cold meats, 700 to 800 quarts of salad, 200 gallons of chop suey, 4000 portions of Chicken a la King, 1000 dozen rolls, with loaves of bread, which placed end to end would make good mileage.

Just visualize devouring 300 lbs. of cheese, 500 dozen doughnuts, 400 gallons of ice cream, 400 gallons of coffee, 50 gallons chocolate to say nothing of 250 cases of soft drinks, all of which goes to make up a hearty meal at a ceremonial.

After the above is taken care of, then of course, come the cigars, and these, run into the thousands.

While the hours of feasting are set from 5 to 7, there is always something in readiness up to 9 o'clock and sometimes later.

In addition to the Chief Steward and his two assistants, mentioned above, we have the following active assistant stewards.

A brief mention will be made of these in order that our readers may know that they have all had experience and are qualified to help aid in making our ceremonials successful.

Sam Vanner, the "candy kid" has a very wide acquaintance in the Shrine, and, with a glad hand, is a constant attendant when his sojourn to St. Petersburg, each year, does not interfere.

Ed. E. Reynolds, who has been the commissary of the Scottish Rite Bodies for the past 25 years, together with Charles H. Sargent, the "newsboy" who has also served upwards of 20 years, as an assistant commissary, allows the writer to get into the picture, he having been associated with both Ed. Reynolds and Charlie Sargent all through their years of service.

Next we line up the Wood brothers, who are well and favorably known as Rosewood (Charlie) and Mahogany (George), and they too ably do their part.

Salem is ably represented by Capt. Frank P. Cook and that little fat Salem constable, John C. Graham, whose chief ailment in life is "Lobsteritus."

Many of our readers will recall "Bill" Devitt, whose smiling countenance and voice we have missed the past few years, due to his being incapacitated but he is always with the stewards in spirit.

From Newburyport, we have Henry E. Leighton, who is always on the job, and Wilbert D. Jones, of Cambridge, who continues to make the "Carl Weitz frankforts" as famous as ever.

Henry E. Wetherbee of Dedham is one of the Old Guard, having served many years, as has also Otto A. Brunen, and William O. Morin of the Copley Plaza and they too are also in attendance, doing their part.

A newcomer to our ranks on the staff is George W. Thornberg, who is well known throughout Shrinedom. He hails from Waltham. George is known as the commissary of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company.

The stewards willingly give their services for the benefit of the Shrine and do their utmost to help make each ceremonial a fitting occasion.

SHRINE

LUNCHEONS

To be Resumed this Month with Professor Joseph Goodbar the First Speaker

THE Shrine monthly gettogether luncheons which were so popular in the past, are to be resumed, starting this month. The first one will be held Tuesday, February 26th, at 12.30 o'clock at the Copley Plaza. Thereafter they will be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, except during June, July, August and December. In other words, after the February Luncheon, the succeeding ones will come on these dates: March 26th, April 23rd, May 28th, September 24th, October 22nd and November 26th. We suggest that you mark these dates down on your calendar now so that you will not miss any of these enjoyable events.

Noble Charles T. Cahill is Chairman of the Luncheon Committee this year and knowing of the plans he has made, we can assure you that there will be plenty of activity, including some of the best entertainment that could possibly be arranged. And if you have been a regular attendant at these luncheons in the past, you know that that's promising a lot. But Noble Cahill is putting a great deal of time, thought and effort into the preparation of these programs, so we are sure that our prediction will be amply fulfilled and that everyone attending will vote them the finest series of luncheons ever head

At our first luncheon on February 26th, we are going to have the privilege of hearing a most constructive talk on a subject of particular interest at this time to every Noble in our Shrine. Our guest speaker on this occasion will be Professor Joseph E. Goodbar of Boston University and his topic will be: "Some Essentials of Sound Banking." Professor Goodbar has made a thorough study recently of banking systems, both in this country and abroad, and the many significant facts he has developed will be embodied in the enlightening and entertaining talk he will give us.

We hope that another enjoyable feature of this luncheon and the ones to follow, may be the awarding of gifts to the nobles present. This was always a popular part of our luncheons in other years and if the Nobles who donate these prizes are as generous with their contributions as they have been heretofore, we will continue it.

So plan to be with us. If you are an "old-timer" at these gettogethers we don't have to tell you that there will be a big attendance with all your old friends on hand. If you are a newcomer you can be sure of a warm and sincere welcome from every Noble present for it's here that good-fellowship is always found at its best.

BOWLING

IF you enjoy bowling and would like to take part in some exciting matches this winter, be sure to get in touch right away with Noble Kenneth ("Ken") Campbell. You'll find him at 44 Bromfield St., Boston and his phone number is HANcock 6455.

"Ken" wants to hear from all Nobles who bowl, whether they are experts or just plain dubs

"Ken" wants to hear from all Nobles who bowl, whether they are experts or just plain dubs like most of us. He believes that teams can be formed in many of the larger cities and competitive Shrine bowling matches held on a regular schedule in the interests of the Nobility.

"A Mason" Hidden in A. A. O. N. M. S.

Some astute and ingenious mind has managed to invent a rebus out of the abbreviation of the Ancient Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine—A. A. O. N. M. S. Write the first letter of abbreviation, A; the fifth, M; the second, A; the sixth, S; the third, O; the tourth, N. You will find that it spells "A MASON."

We compliment Aleppo on its progress in the publication of the Aleppo News.

To our old friends and new we take pride in recalling our progress.

Annual Meeting of Aleppo Temple

THE Annual Meeting of Aleppo Temple was held at Mechanics' Building, Huntington Avenue, Boston on Friday evening, January 11th. The meeting was called to order at 7 o'clock with over 4500 Nobles in attendance.

Upon motion made, and duly seconded, it was voted that the reading of the records of the November 23rd meeting of last year, be dispensed with. Thereupon, the list of candidates for the Order was read and balloted upon. This resulted in the election of ten candidates and nine affiliations, the names of whom are published on page 16 in this issue. Ten Nobles were also reinstated.

The candidates were then ushered onto the stage where the Potentate and officers initiated them into the Order of the Mystic Shrine in short form.

Upon motion of Potentate Fred E. Bolton, duly seconded, the following Nobles were unanimously elected Honorary Members of Aleppo Temple.

Past Potentate, George M. Hendee of Melha Temple.

Ill. Potentate, Paul H. Hosmer of Melha Temple.

Ill. Potentate Nathan B. Richards of Sphinx Temple.

Ill. Potentate Ernest L. Putnam of Bektash Temple.

Noble William Powell, Director of Bektash Temple.

Noble Arthur M. Simmons, Director of Melha Temple.

The Potentate then introduced Noble George M. Hendee, who is Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Shrine Hospital at Springfield, Mass. Noble Hendee responded very graciously and thanked the members of Aleppo for the Honorary membership to which they had just elected him.

It was then voted, upon the motion of the Potentate duly seconded, that the incoming Potentate appoint a committee of five members to revise the By-laws of the Temple.

The Potentate then announced that the nominations for Officers for the year 1935 were in order, resulting in the nomination and election of the following Nobles:

Illustrious
Potentate..... Clarence J. McKenzie
Chief Rabban... Frank A. North
Assistant Rabban... Harry G. Pollard
High Priest
and Prophet...... Charles T. Cahill
Oriental Guide.... James J. Curry
Treasurer.... Joseph W. Work
Recorder.... Walter W. Morrison
Trustee of the Permanent Fund for Three years... George H. Hudson
Representatives to the Imperial
Council for 1935, Clarence J. McKenzie, Frank A. North, Fred E.
Bolton, Walter W. Morrison, (Permenent).

The newly elected Potentate Clarence J. McKenzie was then installed into office by Past Potentate and Recorder, Walter W. Morrison. Following this, the other elected officers were installed into office by the retiring Potentate Fred E. Bolton. Noble and Judge Malcolm E. Sturtevant was then

Endowing Our Hospitals for All Time

NOBLES ARE NOW PERMITTED TO BECOME PERMANENT CONTRIBUTORS

AT the session of the Imperial Council, A. A. O. N. M. S., held at Atlantic City, in July, 1933, Section 95 of Article XI, of The Imperial Council By-Laws, was amended by adding the following paragraph.

"Provided, however, that any member upon the payment of the sum of sixty dollars ($60.00) shall receive a receipt therefor from the Recorder of his Temple, and shall be exempt from any further assessment for the Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children. Upon the payment of such sum to the Recorder, he shall cause his record to show the exemption of such member from future Hospital assessments."

Another paragraph provides that all moneys so collected shall be turned over to the Imperial Treasurer and by him invested in United States Government bonds or bonds of State, Counties and Cities bearing certain ratings. Only the income from this fund is to be paid to the general fund for the operation and maintenance of the Hospitals.

By this amendment, Nobles are now permitted to become permanent contributors to the Hospital Maintenance, for the income from your $60.00 will continue its good work long after the call of the Black Camel. A Noble does not have to be a Life Member of his Temple to take advantage of this privilege, but does become a Member of the Hospital Endowment Fund.

Let us all help the Hospital cause by building up a permanent income, and at the same time have the satisfaction of knowing that we have assisted in one of the greatest, if not the greatest charity.

Send $60.00 to your Recorder, get a receipt for Membership in the Hospital Endowment Fund!

A great many of our Nobles have taken advantage of this opportunity. For example, a check and the following letter was received recently from Noble Edgar W. Metcalf of Winthrop, Mass. He writes: "I enclose herewith my check for sixty dollars for Life Membership in the Shrine Hospital Endowment Fund in accordance with the plan stated in the last Shrine notice. I think this is a very fine way to insure the future continuance of the work of the hospitals and hope very many members will support this movement."

Here is another Noble, Wm. Jardine, of Dorchester, Mass., who expresses his opinion of the plan in this way. "I am glad to be able to enclose this check on behalf of the Crippled Childrens' Hospital Fund, as it will take care of my annual contribution when I like all other Nobles will have to respond to the call of the Black Camel. In the meantime, please send me a bill for the yearly dues for the Crippled Children, as you have done, and oblige."

Noble Clinton L. Bancroft, of 108 Water Street, Boston, when enclosing his check for $60.00, wrote: "I feel each year that the miserably small contribution is the best expenditure we make."

Noble J. W. Fairchild, of Reading, Mass., accompanied his check with the following communication: "I really believe," he writes, "that this is one of the finest efforts the Shrine has made to obtain steady income, and consider it a privilege to be able to contribute this amount for this purpose."

Noble Leonard H. Torrey, Manager of the Hotel Hemenway, Boston, is still another who has written us and enclosed his check for this splendid work. If you haven't sent yours as yet, do so now and join the many other Nobles of our Shrine who are now members of the Hospital Endowment Fund.

NEWS OF OUR SOJOURNING MEMBERS

MANY of our more fortunate members have pulled up stakes and journeyed to warmer climates leaving us here to shiver and shake and play nursemaid to a furnace with the old thermometer flirting with zero. But we're not envious, oh no! This snappy weather puts the old pep into us and there is one thing sure, we'll all appreciate the Spring when it rolls around.

preciate the Spring when it rolls around. But to get back to our subject, we started out to announce that the following Nobles of Aleppo are enjoying the sunshine and beaches at that popular winter playground, St. Petersburg, Florida.

Harley G. Keeler of Haverhill.
Herbert A. Wiggin of Norwood.
Edward H. Gallup of Hyde Park.
Ernest H. Howe of E. Lynn.
George Gonia of Quincy.
Isaac Hodgen Jr. of Boston.
Fred A. Traften of Revere.
Charles Jed Tower of Hudson.
Ed. Boyce of Sharon.
George E. Miller of Suncook, N. H.
Edwin C. Babbitt of Fitchburg.
Maynard H. Moore of Everett.
Frank S. French of Niantic, Conn.

Speaking of St. Petersburg reminds us that we recently received a letter from Noble Theodore'S. Nickerson who now resides in the "sunshine city" the year around. He reports that Noble Joe Coulliard and daughter of Winthrop, are his guests for the winter.

Doctor and Noble Clarence P. Curley of Provincetown: is spending the winter in Eau Gallie, Florida.

Noble Cyrus Washburn of Jacksonville, sends regards to all his friends and acquaintances in Aleppo. Cy is a Life Member of Aleppo and has the honor of being the Bandmaster of Morocco Temple Shrine Band down there, a position he has held for many years.

Noble William M. Farrington of Melvin Village, N. H., has also selected St. Petersburg, Florida, for his winter home . He is stopping at the Hotel De Ville and plans to stay until May.

Still another letter postmarked "St. Petersburg", brings news of the whereabouts of Noble Frank E. Potter of Provincetown, and some of our other members. He writes: "Wish you could be down here enjoying the wonderful weather with Nobles Couilliard, Nickerson and I. It sure is preferable to what I imagine you are getting up there. We all join in wishing you a healthy and prosperous New Year."

Noble Andrew Thompson, Agent for the New England Transportation Co., is in Miami recuperating from a recent illness.

Noble G. Williard King of Worcester is likewise vacationing in Miami.

The Arab Patrol desires to make the first thing it does in the space allotted to it, be a word of cordial greeting, appreciation, and good-will to all of the Nobles of Aleppo. It is you who inspire us to serve and it is you whom we strive to please. The Patrol salutes you!

In 1885, two years after the granting of a charter to Aleppo Temple, twelve men were appointed by Henry E. Hosley, a Charter Member and the first Potentate, to take charge of the novices and conduct them safely across the "burning sands." Previous to the appointment of this body, the Director, Frank Locke, also a Charter Member, had charge of the initiates.

At first they had no special regalia, simply evening dress, but now the Patrol adds much to the dignity and effect of the work with their individual robes and jewels. The Arab Patrol originally was the personal staff of the Potentate, and its purpose was to assist the officers in the floor work and any other way possible. From the small group of "originals" the Arab Patrol of Aleppo Temple has grown to be one of the largest in Shrinedom, with Medinah of Chicago and Moslem of Detroit, its chief rivals in that respect. At the Imperial Council parades the big show is the sight of these three Temples with their bands of equal size making a colorful picture of approximately 1000 Nobles marching in perfect alignments.

Aleppo has generally carried off the honors of the friendly competition by showing some unique and original feature, such as the Boston Tea Party, its Puritans and Continentals.

The Mounted Patrol was added to the unit about 10 years ago and soon took its place in efficiency with the few outfits of troopers that represent other Temples.

Aleppo has the reputation of being not only the equal in drilling, but is recognized as the best disciplined Patrol of all — a fact that is a credit to its members and proof of their sincere interest in their work.

In the ranks are many who have given splendid service in the prerequisite organizations, serving as Worshipful Masters, High Priests and Eminent Commanders. All professions and lines of business are represented by men who are successful, and there are the workmen skilled in art and architecture.

The Patrol drill weekly for about nine months of the year and the average of attendance runs very high.

Speaking of masonic service Saint Omer Commandery not so long ago had an Aleppo Patrol night where every office was filled by a member of the Arab Patrol who was also a member of that Commandery. Saint Omer by the way can claim to be the cradle of Aleppo Temple as nearly all of the charter members came from that Commandery.

Of the Illustrious Potentates in the past 22 years, every one has at some time been a member of the Patrol.

Major John A. Ray, Sergt. Walter Cox, and "Judge" Charlie Stickney are the old-timers for continuous service — having at least 20 years to their credit.

Col. Henry D. Cormerais, the drill instructor, is a well known World War Veteran and the Inspector General of the Massachusetts National Guard.

Major Charles T. Harding, Adjutant of the Patrol, is an Election Commissioner of the City of Boston.

Doctor L. D. Chisholm of the staff has been a five term Mayor of Everett.

Charlie Hildred, "Hunker" to his pals, is the star salesman of the Noyes-Buick Company, and in the recent contest won the local Gold watch and then took the prize Sedan for topping the list in a territory that included New York and Pennsylvania.

"Chick" Story, the boy that plays the bells is the composer of "Aleppo" and other marching songs of the Patrol. He is famed as a song writer and has put over some big hits — for example, the famed "Rose of No Man's Land".

Lieut. "Eddie" Freeman, the diamond man from Lowell, is one of the spark plugs of the outfit. Just to prove his interest he has been known to drive from Bangor, Maine, making an early start to attend a drill that night.

Lieut. Ben Vaughan of the first platoon, who is the Secretary of the State Street Trust Co. branch in the Back Bay section, recently celebrated his tenth wedding anniversary and had the boys out to his house to make merry.

Ben James the "top kick" of the first platoon, won the distinguished service cross in his service overseas. Ben, "Scottie" Duncan, and Freddie Wegener are the three guardsmen that are "all for one, and one for all" ever since the war.

DEATH OF NOBLE HERBERT W. GOODWIN IN FLORIDA

THE recent death in St. Petersburg of Noble Herbert W. Goodwin, retired Captain of the Boston police, came as a great shock to his hosts of friends in Aleppo Temple and all other Masonic bodies. He had been ill about two months.

Noble Goodwin served for 40 years with the Boston police, retiring two years ago and moving to Florida for a well deserved rest. He was born in Boston, Oct. 17th, 1886 and joined the police department in 1890. His excellent work brought him rapid promotions through the ranks and in 1911 Police Commissioner Stephen O'Meara made him a captain and assigned him to police headquarters.

PRIZE YOUR SHRINE EMBLEM!

Do you realize what a privilege it is to wear your Shrine emblem? It is the greatest passport in all walks of life, one that will put you in touch with the best element of citizenship and one that compels admiration and respect everywhere. It is decidedly worthwhile to keep in good standing and enjoy Shrinedom's many favors and advantages.

I'm Glad My Husband is a Shriner!

EDITOR'S NOTE: It is our desire to include in every issue of this magazine malerial that will be of real interest to the thousands of women in the homes of our Nobles, and we will deeply appreciate any suggestions you have to offer. For we believe that through the reading of this publication, our women folk will gain a more appreciative understanding of the constructive aims and activities of Shrinedom. With this objective in view, we are publishing below, a letter written by the wife of one of our Nobles, whom in this instance asks that her name be withheld. We invite all our women readers to likevise express themselves on this subject or any other they have in mind. We are offering prizes for the best letters received. Complete details of this Contest are given at the bottom of the next column.

Aleppo Temple, 97 Huntington Ave., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen:

"Sometime ago, I heard the remark made, that a Shriner is a man who wears a fez. My husband is a Shriner. And I know that on certain occasions he wears a fez. But to me, and I believe to thousands of other women whose husbands are Shriners, both the symbolism and significance of Shrinedom goes much farther and deeper than that.

There have been periods in our lives, as with every other married couple, when it has taken every last bit of our courage to face the future. And it has been at such times, when a great crisis arose when everything seemed about to crumble away and leave us with nothing but the ashes of our hopes - that those great qualities which the teachings of the Shrine injects into the hearts and minds of its Nobles have served so ably to carry us through triumphant.

We are all possessed with certain human frailities. The best of us are prone, on occasions, to be selfish, to be vain, to be weak, and to be blinded to future consequences by the expediences of the moment. Even a Shriner is not immune to these failings. Yet I know from our own experiences, that those weaknesses which are so devastating to marital happiness, are experienced less and less in a Shrine home where mutual love and understanding prevail.

I can still recall vividly the thrill I experienced when, early in our married life, my husband came home one day and announced that he had become a Mason. Never have I had a prouder moment. It wasn't a "keeping up with the Joneses" sort of pride. I can only define it by saying that I saw in his acceptance of Masonry, a vindication of my own belief in him as a man. Immediately, there came to my mind that mediately there came to my mind that old copy-book maxim: "Birds of a feather flock together." That is perhaps a crude way to express it, but assuredly, unless a man has within himself those qualities which are embodied in the precepts of Masonry, he will not be attracted to it.

Since then, as time passed, and my husband progressed in Masonry until he became a Shriner and a member of Aleppo Temple, my observations have only served to strengthen the belief that: "As a man is, so he does." And today if I were asked to define a Shriner, I would say that first of all he is a man who is honest with himself and with the world. He is a man who is big in heart and in mind. He is considerate of those about him. He is charitable, social, a good mixer, keenly interested in worthwhile He is a man who is respected and who is at peace with himself and his fellows.

Shrinedom has stood out in our lives like a light-house guiding us safely through the treacherous shoals and into the calm waters of life where we have gained a better understanding of our own responsibilities to one another and of our service to our fellow men. That's why I'm glad I am a Shriner's

Sincerely yours,

Mrs.

A PRIZE CONTEST

As a woman, what has Shrinedom meant to you? Why are you glad that some member of your household, your husband, your father, your brother, or your son is a Shriner? The ALEPPO MONTHLY NEWS will award prizes for the best letters received on this subject. The Contest opens February 1st and closes February 20th. A committee selected by the editor of this publication will carefully judge all letters sent in and award the following prizes:

$5.00 for the best letter. $3.00 for the second best. $2.00 for the third best.

The prize winners will be announced in the March issue of this magazine and their letters will be published. Sit down and write your letter today!

THE CAKE OF CAKES

One of our brother Nobles, hearing that we were going to have a woman's page in our new magazine, immediately sat himself down and wrote us this letter. Said he: "Being a confirmed old bachelor, I am delighted to learn that you are going to cater to the ladies in our new publication. To help the good work along, I am enclosing a recipe for a cake which is so light that it has to be anchored to the table before serving. You can tell the women that it is a brand new 1935 model and that they won't find anything like it in the cooking pages of the newspapers or national magazines. By printing it, the good old Aleppo Monthly News will score a scoop in its first issue!

We took his recipe home and had the wife try it. Scriously it makes a good cake. We'll venture to say that if you feed a slice of it to the old Noble when he comes home tonight, he'll either kiss or kill you! That's just how good it is. Specifications

1 cup sugar 3 egg yolks, well beaten 1 teaspoon vanilla 1/4 teaspoon salt ½ pt. heavy cream

Beat thoroughly. Add 1½ cup of good cake flour. Beat thoroughly. Add stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake 40 minutes in 350 degree oven.

P. S. We forgot the baking powder. Better put in 1½ teaspoons sifted with the flour. That's all! P.S. Again! It's great with a chocolate frosting!

Send us in your favorite recipe, or any other household idea which you believe will be of interest to other Shriners' wives or mothers. We'll gladly publish as many of them as possible and vote you many thanks for your cooperation.

A CULINARY DISCOVERY!

Our bachelor Noble who sent in the recipe for a cake, printed on this page, had better look to his laurels. And the same goes for our women folk. For just as we were going to press we made the astounding discovery that Aleppo has another culinary genius in the person of our new Illustrious Potentate Clarence J. McKenzie.

His contribution to the dinner-table of the world is something entirely new, novel and destined to be as indispensable as eggs are to bacon. It is nothing less than TEA DEMI-TASSE! Everyone has heard of coffee in this abbreviated form, but who ever heard of tea in short pants?

Answer: Nobody! It took our Potentate to delve deep into teadom and emerge triumphant with this marvelous tea demitasse, surely a boon to humanity. Of course having a bit of Scotch in him, — not the kind you can pour — may have had something to do with it. But we're not so jealous of his good fortune that we'd mention it.

STRIKE UP THE BAND

By Noble Charles C. Fearing, Asso. Editor

OUR genial leader, Walter Smith, has delegated to us the responsibility of furnishing a column for the new paper, so the dream of our life has come true and we are a full fledged "Columnist."

Of course we do not expect to compete with Westbrook Peglar, Neil O'Hara or Walter Winchell, not at first, although we may like Winchell, "Peep through the keyhole" occasionally. But if the editor of this new journalistic venture wields a trenchant blue pencil we will have to watch our step.

They say that "music hath charms to soothe the savage beast" and if this be true then Aleppo band is surely some soothing syrup.

As we look back over the years we cannot help making some comparisons between the early days of this musical unit, (when it was more unit than musical) and its present state of efficiency.

It was originally started as a fife and drum corps, with fourteen drums, seven fifes, bass drum and cymbals, and a drum

It was a hard job to get fife players but everyone thought they could play a drum, and some haven't relinquished that idea yet. We can visualize the debut of the corps on the streets of Boston.

We were garbed in some cast-off uniforms of the patrol, and a part of that rig was a turban with a long flowing veil. It was a windy night and when we were not reaching for a high note we were grabbing at those veils which persisted in wrapping themselves around our noses and ears.

We attended our first Imperial Council meeting at Buffalo that year and our uniforms consisted of a khaki suit and leggings, like a troup of Boy Scouts. We only knew three tunes, — "Sergt. only knew three tunes, — "Sergt. O'Leary," Ye Ancients" and "Finnegan's O'Leary," Ye Ancients" and "Finnegan's Wake." This latter was Walter Morrison's favorite, and we played that d—d tune so often that many a time Finnegan's ghost perched on our bed-rail all night. But as Raymond Hitchcock used to say—"Them was the happy days, them was."

It is a far cry from "Finnegan's Wake" to overtures by Wagner, et al, but the boys have made the grade under the able leadership of Noble Smith, and we can now tackle tough music with the best of We can even play it tougher than

All joking aside however, it is a lot of fun belonging to one of the largest, if not the largest band in any fraternal organization even if we do have to blow our own The Monday night rehearsals, while calling for some real effort, are not all hard work for good fellowship in accordance with true Shrine tradition predominates.

Our annual Christmas party was a huge success, and how the boys did eat. We wondered if blowing a wind instrument or banging a drum increased their appe-Napoleon must have had a brass band in mind when he said an army traveled on its stomach, and we bet some of the boys could have traveled far, wide and handsome on their tummies that

We understand this is going to be a busy year, and as a starter there is the Potentate's ball on Saturday evening, February

Then on Wednesday, February 20, we are to play for a benefit for the Children's Hospital at Springfield. We hope every member of the band will turn out on that occasion, as the Hospital for Crippled Children is the brightest star in the Shrine's diadem.

The thought that we can, even in a humble way, be instrumental in helping these little ones to enjoy a healthy normal childhood should strike a responsive chord in every heart and urge us to make any sacrifice for the continued success of this great work for humanity.

We have no alarm clock like Will Rogers but we have a wholesome dread of that blue pencil of ye editor, so we will close by simply saying in the words of the renowned Mr. Pepys, — "And so to bed."

A WORD ABOUT OUR NEW NOBLES

LEPPO'S new Nobles deserve A the warmest, most cordial welcome we can give them. They deserve also a fatherly word or twojust such a heart-to-heart talk as the editor of Tatler, Tripoli Temple's splendid magazine, recently gave their newly-elected members. Here's his editorial in full:

A man who travels much once said that the Shrine emblem was the best letter of introduction he ever carried. He has worn it practically all over the world, and he seldom failed to find a friend, no matter where he went.

Someone else said that the emblem is the open sesame to half a million friendships.

"It's that - and as much more as you care to make it.

"In the first place it is a guarantee that a body of responsible men have investigated you and found you to be of good repute. It's an open announcement that you are the sort of man the other fellow wants to know. It's an acknowledgement that you are out for a wholesomely good time.

"Backed by the year card it is a badge of responsibility and standing.

"It's something to be lived up to, but if you live up to the scimiter and crescent you'll find friends - good ones - everywhere.

"You don't need a formal introduction to any other Noble. Just smile and nod and your contact is made. He knows you're all right. You know he's all right.

The 2000th Convocation of St. Andrews R. A. Chapter was celebrated on Wednesday, January 2, in a simple but impressive manner. A congratulatory letter was read from All Souls Chapter ≉170 of Weymouth, Dorset, England, this Chapter being nearly 150 years old, and itself one of the oldest now active across the seas.

M. E. Grand High Priest Ralph Lowe, Jr., with a distinguished suite was received and after a musical number, addressed the Chapter.

Hon. Channing H. Cox, a St. Andrews member of long standing, then addressed the Companions, after which the roll of 25 year or more members was called, showing 98 present, 8 of them over 50

Cambridge R. A. Chapter on Friday, January 18th celebrated its 70th Anniversary Convocation. This was an outstanding evening and was largely attended. A number of its oldest members were there, among them Past E. H. P. Herbert A. Rhodes senior P.H.P. of the Chapter and a member over 50 years, the oldest member present was Companion Powers. This was made doubly interesting in the presence of the M.E. Grand High Priest and a distinguished suite.

A little late, but we can not pass mention of the unanimous election of Companion Arthur A. A. Stewart to the highest office in the gift of the Grand Council of R. & S. Highlights of the Election

By Noble George A. Rhodes, Asso. Editor

The big feature of the Annual Meeting of the Aleppo Shrine which was held on the evening of January 11th in the Mechanics' Building at Boston was of course the election and installation of the new officers for 1935. Aleppo is fortunate indeed to have such a splendid group to administer its affairs for this year and I feel sure that under their direction we are going to enjoy a most successful period.

The election of our new Potentate Clarence McKenzie was greeted with great enthusiasm by the thousands of Nobles in attendance and as each succeeding officer was installed the same unanimous approval was evinced.

Noble Joseph W. Work was re-elected Treasurer for the 35th time. He is the oldest member of Aleppo Shrine in years of affiliation. He joined in 1886 and was first elected Treasurer in 1891.

An unusual event was the election of Noble George M. Hendee of the Springfield Shrine, an honorary life member. He is chairman of the Shriners' Crippled Children's hospital board of directors in Springfield. He spoke of the progress of the great work for humanity and invited every Shriner to visit the hospital if they could find it possible.

Few institutions are fortunate enough to have a man of the type of Mr. Hendee who will give it the benefit of his great business ability so freely. When those who know think of the beautiful hospital on the hill overlooking Springfield, the name of Noble George Hendee comes to mind instantly. The officers were installed by Recorder Morrison and the entertainment started on the stroke of 8 o'clock and finished before 10 o'clock. The Shriners' band, Walter M. Smith conducting, contributed much to the pleasure of the evening. The group of candidates were received by the short form route and will have an opportunity within a month or so to see all the fun, trials and tribulations they missed in not entering on a regular ceremonial night.

Recorder Walter W. Morrison was re-elected to his office and still continues the same genial man he was when taking the office. Many men in like position after the first hundred years or more, get grouchy, but not so with our Recorder. He still adds the humorous touch to every meeting.

The new line of officers includes a group of men well known in the business world. In presenting the name of Clarence McKenzie for the office of Potentate, said Noble Morrison, "When I was elected Potentate some 20 years ago I called Mr. McKenzie's attention to the fact that he had agreed to join if I became head of the works. I doubt if he really thought much about the remark made in fun. Anyway the next morning after my election I had the application with me and he signed on the dotted line as the Winthrop train ran into the ferry house. Nobles, I believe that was a good morning's work and it is a pleasure to present his name for Potentate." The election was unanimous and Mr. McKenzie set the pace by a short acceptance speech. It will be a year of action in the shrine.

THE Degree Staff met Friday evening, January 18th, and was organized by Past Potentate, Roy Faye, as Director.

The announcement that Roy had been appointed as Director was greeted with cheers and enthusiasm. Roy talked to the boys and gave them an outline of the program that he has in mind for 1935.

If Roy does as good a job directing the Degree Staff and its work (and we think he will) as he did directing Aleppo Temple as Potentate for two years, the Nobility may look forward to some very lively "second sections" at the forthcoming Ceremonials.

Good luck and best wishes, Roy.

The boys of the Degree Staff were grieved to learn that Noble Wilbur Parker, of the Staff, suffered a sad loss in the death of his father, on January 13th.

Wilbur's dad lived an active and useful life, having served his country in the Spanish War on the Mexican Border, and in the World War. He was active in the fire department, in the various branches of the Masonic Order, Eastern Star, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Bear up, Wilbur, when the Grim Reaper calls we must go.

The boys of the Staff were happy to receive the announcement that Noble and Mrs. Carl Priest would celebrate their 25th Wedding Anniversary on Tuesday, January 22nd.

There is no question but that there will be a big turn-out for this party and we are sure that Mrs. Priest and Noble Carl "Siren" Priest will do the honors in the fashion that befits their twenty-five years of joint existence.

As we go to press, Noble Sidney "Sid" Abbott and Noble Charles W. "Bill" Harris are both confined to their homes seriously ill. Their presence was missed at the organization meeting Friday night, January 18th.

Director Roy Faye P.P. would like to hear from any of the Nobles who know of any stunts that could be used at the next ceremonial. He would like particularly to get suggestions for some humorous ones, stunts that the Nobles have seen staged elsewhere, or original ones that will go over well. Full credit will be given to the Nobles whose stunts are used by an announcement at the ceremonial. So get busy and send some good ones along!

OPERATING A TEMPLE

If a Shrine Temple begins to retrench on its finances how far should it go? Should it batten down the hatches and strip the canvas from every mast, like a ship rounding the Horn? Should it cut the number of its meetings in two, restrict itself to the barest schedule of Temple business and eliminate all "extras"—social affairs, educational affairs, etc.?

There is such a thing as a blind, fanatical lust for saving money as much as there is a blind, fanatical lust for throwing it away. A Temple can bankrupt itself by spending too little as easily as by spending too much. The loss of diminishing returns works in both directions. To cut down activities to the point where the members cease to feel any interest in their Temple is not economy but suicide — like the merchant who locks up his store to cut down expenses - he has no expenses, neither has he any profits. Making it impossible to have anything to save is not a form of saving, but is like the Hollywood actresses who diet themselves into pernicious anemia. An anemic Temple is not equipped to meet the tests of hard times; it is not equipped to meet any

The wise spending of money is itself a form of economy. The very idea at the bottom of the budget system is the true conception of economy. A properly planned budget will show that economy is not an arbitrary increase of income nor an equally arbitrary reduction of expenditures, but a living balance between the two. And furthermore it shows that of all the fallacies that need to be hunted down and destroyed during these hard times none other is more vicious than the widespread notion that economy and non-use of money can mean the same thing. — Exchange.

Attention SIR KNIGHTS!

Grand Commandery Banquets

ON the second Thursday of each month, namely February 14th, March 14th, April 11th and May 9th, at 6:30 P. M., Grand Commandery monthly conferences and banquets will be held in the main dining room of the Hotel Touraine, Boston, when the message of Templary will be fully developed by distinguished Templars and guest speakers. Dress will be informal.

These conferences are designed for Knights Templars and are for evenings of relaxation after the day's labors. They will afford opportunities for enlarging your circle of acquaintances and if you desire, to entertain in a pleasing atmosphere, your friends and business associates from out of town.

The price of tickets is placed at $2.00 each and can be obtained from the Grand Commander or at the Grand Recorder's office, 205 Masonic Temple, Boston.

THE COST OF REINSTATEMENT

A noble is not charged with dues during the period he is under suspension. There are many Nobles who have been compelled in the past to sever their connections with Aleppo, for reasons beyond their control. Many of them are now financially able at this time to come back into the fold, but don't do so because they feel that the amount of their arrearage at the time of suspension, plus the dues which have accumulated since suspension, are piled up against them.

This is not the case. These Nobles owe only the dues they were indebted for at the time they sacrificed their memberships, plus of course, the current year's dues, which would entitle them to a current year's membership card.

If you know of any Noble who allowed his membership to lapse, tell him to get in touch with the Recorder. Let's rekindle the spark of enthusiasm which prompted these Nobles to first hold on to the rope and encourage them to "hang on for good" this time.

MEETINGS IN ALEPPO EVERY NIGHT

Since Aleppo Temple was founded meetings have been held every night in the week except Sunday. Due to the large membership of Aleppo, it is impossible to have a ceremonial on any night in the month without conflicting with meetings of other Masonic organizations to which many Nobles belong. Therefore the meeting nights of Aleppo are chosen for the best interest of the majority of our members, and if we conflict with the other organizations it is unintentional.

From A Growing Organization To A Going Organization In 60 Days

TWO months ago Aleppo Chanters was no more than an idea, but today it is a Going Organization that bids fair to become one of the outstanding male choruses in the East. Remarkable growth, truly; but good, sturdy, healthy growth in spite of apparent precocity.

In the few brief weeks since the first tentative rehearsal was held, more than 100 enthusiastic members of Aleppo's Nobility have registered their intentions to become associated with this newest of Aleppo's Uniformed Organizations. A glance through the present membership roster (page 5 of this issue) will show the type of business and professional men who are lifting their voices in song to the glory of Aleppo.

The rapid growth of the Chanters is largely attributable to the dynamic energy and sterling capabilities of the director, Noble Roy Harlow. Noble Harlow, a Past Master of Euclid Lodge and Past High Priest of Belmont Chapter, has a wide an enviable background in the field of vocal music. While this is his first venture at the head of any Aleppo activity, Noble Harlow has been associated with such well known organizations as the Knickerbocker Quartet, the Lancaster Chorus, and the choral group of Filene's Store. On two occasions Noble Harlow, who is a former pupil of the late eminent conductor, Emil Mollenhauer, conducted the Boston Symphony Orchestra at the Pop Concerts during the playing of his own compositions.

It is entirely possible that there will be a repetition of that Symphony experience this spring, for there is scheduled at the coming Pop Concerts an Aleppo Night, at which the new Chanters may have an opportunity to show what they can do in Boston's most select musical company.

The Chanters first public appearance will be on February 16, at the Potentate's Ball in Mechanics Hall. Their formal presentation to the Officers and Nobility of Aleppo will occur at the concert in March, when they will be heard with Aleppo's famous Band. Plans are now being formulated for several additional public appearances during the coming season. And, of course, the Chanters will b heard at all ceremonials in the future.

While the membership of the Chanters will be limited for the present to 100 members, there are still openings in the group for several first and second tenors. While some singing ability is necessary, of course, the prime requisite to membership in the new Aleppo Chanters is Good Fellowship. If you can meet the requirements, and have a tenor voice, drop around to see us some Tuesday evening, at the Shrine Headquarters, 97 Huntington Avenue, Boston.

Best Wishes

FALSE COLORS

THERE are many men walking the streets wearing a Shrine pin or button and posing as members of the Order, who once upon a time were members of a Shrine Temple, but lost their membership on account of dismissal, suspension or other causes. Just ask one if he is a member of the Shrine and he will point to the emblem; some going so far as to tell you they are members. This is not only against the laws of the Shrine, but is unmasonic.

A news item in a New York City paper, recently carried an account of the arrest and conviction of a man, who was picked up on a street wearing a Shrine pin. He admitted that he was not a member of the Order.

At Noble Drewett's Filling Station— "Five gallons, please."

"Okay, How's your oil?"

"Just gas please."

"How about a bottle of Shinola — great for lacquer; your bus is all covered with traffic film."

"Nope, just the gas."

"Your left rear tire's pretty well shot. Better let me put on a new one; we're selling puncherproof today for—"

"No, the gas will be all."

"How long since you had a grease job? Everything looks kinda dry — hear that body squeak?"

"Haven't time today — just the gas this time."

"How about one of our electric cigar lighters — clamp right on your dash and when you want a —"

"NO, JUST THE GAS."

And the indignant motorist drove away with his five gallons of gas. Noble Drewett remarked to the bystander: "That there was Henry, my barber."

introduced and submitted a resolution to the members commending and congratulating the retiring Potentate for his excellent service while in office. The resolution read as follows:

WHEREAS: The past year, because of business conditions, has presented many problems that called for sound judgment and good leadership, the members of Aleppo Temple are pleased to record their satisfaction with the progress that has been made.

They desire to commend and to congratulate Noble Fred E. Bolton for his excellent service as Illustrious Potentate.

Be it RESOLVED: In recognition of his efforts, which have solidified the harmony of the organization, materially advanced its financial welfare, and gave to its members a full quota of social activity, that he is deserving of some token to express appreciation of a service so well performed.

VOTED: That an Honorary Life Membership in Aleppo Temple be conferred upon Illustrious Noble Fred E. Bolton, Potentate in the year 1934.

VOTED: That a copy of this Resolution, attested by the Recorder, be suitably engrossed, and bearing the seal of Aleppo Temple, be presented to Fred E. Bolton as a mark of the good-will, love and esteem of his fellow-nobles.

After the close of the meeting, the members enjoyed a spectacular vaudeville show which was under the direction of Noble Walter E. Knight. The show was presented on an improvised stage built in the center of the floor with a runway reaching from the stage to the main stage in the Grand Hall.

Prior to the meeting a dinner was served to the 4500 Nobles present, in the banquet hall from five until seven o'clock under the direction of Steward George H. Shackford and Assistant Stewards "Al" Yarlotte and "Bill" Spottiswoode.

REINSTATEMENTS

Present to the prospect a sketch of what is back of the Shrine. The field is broad and you can perform a friendly act by sowing a little seed and reaping a fraternal harvest. Remember the initiation fee is only $50.00 NOW!

How many Nobles reside in our Oasis whose membership is in out-of-state jurisdiction? in our Obsis whose in our Obsis whose is in out-of-state jurisdiction? A great number, and many of them could be made valuable active members if they could be enrolled under the banner of Aleppo. They know what the Shrine is and no doubt would be glad of a home. There is no affiliation fee.

Have you thought of bringing back into the fellowship of the Shrine that friend whose membership for some reason was allowed to lapse? Membership in our Temple is too valuable to be discarded. Rekindle the spark of enthusiasm which prompted them to first "HOLD ON TO THE ROPE." And encourage them to hold on encourage them to hold for keeps this time.
